Sign Up Genius

All students, staff and faculty will need to sign up for a meal time slot on “sign up genius” via an email that will be sent once for the quarantine meal pick up and then again for when the dining hall opens. They will need to pick the times that fit their schedule best and try their best to come at the chosen time for the entire semester – though no student will be refused service at any time. This will help to ensure the dining hall is never above COVID regulation capacity.

Alert Color-Coded System – either campus-wide or specific to Dining Services
